III. PERSONAL STATEMENT

Please type, single-spaced, and limit all answers combined to no more than 3 pages:

1. Why are you a Christian? Describe how your faith impacts your everyday life, and those around you.
2. Why do you, as a Christian, want to work in the entertainment business? In what capacity do you see yourself most effective and passionate, and why?
3. Cite examples of movies or TV shows that are most like what you aspire to help create, and tell us why.
4. What do you specifically hope to get from the Executive Program?
5. What are your plans upon completion of the Executive Program?

IV. INTERNSHIP PREFERENCES

The Executive Program is an intense, rigorous “boot camp” experience requiring an extraordinary commitment of time, energy, and passion. Candidates are expected to work a minimum 20 hours per week in a full-time entertainment job or internship—in addition to participating in an after-hours curriculum of weekend and weeknight classes (6-14 additional hours per week).

- Check here if you already have full-time entertainment employment in L.A. for Summer 2007 and do NOT want to be matched to an Internship. Also, please use the space below to list your employer and position:

What kind of internship experience most interests you? Please check or number all appropriate boxes:

Although every effort will be made to match candidates with employers, applicants' selections cannot be guaranteed.
